Serene and Smilling.

Police Justice Divver, who was holding court on Wednesday, requiring the executors of the cetate of the late Jay Gould to show cause why they should not file an inventory of the millionaire's estate, came up for argument to-day in the Surrogate's Chambers.

The order to show cause was secured by Lawyer L. J. Morrison, counsel for the Soldiers' Orphan Home, against Russell Sage and George Gould for an accounting of HL 600,000 worth of Consolidated bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway, of which has a suit against Russell Sage and George Gould for an accounting of HL 600,000 worth of Consolidated bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway, of which Russell Sage and Jay Gould were trustees. It is alleged that the trustees appropriated the bonds for their own use.

Bimiliar actions have been taken in the United States Courts by other bondowners. The action in the Surrogate's Court was begun to compel the executors of the Gould estate to make restitution or deposit the amount in court, pending a decision.

When the case was called to-day, Col.

E. C. James, representing the Gould secutors of the affidavits.

L. J. Morrison, counsel for the Soldiers of the Gould estate are hedged about like kings. It is impossible for any or dinary process-server to sach them it has been necessary to sach them it has been necessary to sach them and who served the order to serve the affidavit also, but in the hurry and difficulty my instructions were not followed."

"Mr. Gould's will was filed for probate about two years ago, and although one shout two years ago, and although one should be a meeting of all the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas the securing to consider the allegations against Justice Duly of the Court of Common Pleas the acquisition to consider the allegations against Justice Duly of the Court of Common Pleas the would be a meeting of all t court in Morrisania this morning, was asked whether he had any answer

"It may be a week or so before the rules are formulated, but we shall begin action at once."

Nathaniel H. White, a jeweller, at Il Maiden lane, and one of the signers of Lawyer Hale's document, said this morning:

"I signed the paper at the request of Mr. Hale, but I heartily approve of the charges. Concerning them, however, I have no personal knowledge. Neither do I know whether or not Mr. Parsell is the prime mover in the matter."

Henry W. Parsell, one of the signers, is a director of the New York Society for the Prevention of Crime, of which Rev. Dr. Parkhurst is President, and also a member of Dr. Parkhurst's church. He was a member of the Grand Jury which indicted the Boodle Aidermen, and is a well-known writer on electrical subjects.

Lawyer William H. Hale remained at his home, 40 First place, Brocklyn, this morning to prepare the charges for the removal of Police Justice Patrick Divver, which are based upon the preliminary allegations presented by Mr. Hale to Judge Daly, of the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday.

Within a week Mr. Hale will have all the charges in shape. They will recite the history of Divver's connection with "green goods" men, his recent fight in Morris Tekulsky's saloon and various other episodes in the P. J.'s life that will make interesting reading for the taxpayers of the city.

"Judge Daly told me that he will convene the five other Judges at once," said Mr. Hale, "and they will, as the law directs, prepare the rules to govern the procedure for Divver's removal.

"The charges will contain more than the preliminary allegations I filed with Judge Daly yesterday. The method of procedure will, I expect, be the same as that which governed the action for the removal of a Police Justice about sixteen years ago.

"I believe I have a clear case against Divver that will result in his removal.

oner Cut in Two by the Steamer Georgia.

FORT MONROE, Va., Nov. 23-Th large passenger steamer Georgia, run ning between Baltimore and Norfolk cut down the schooner Eva T. Barns last night, and the vessel sank immediately. The collision occurred in a dense fog, which made it impossible for the lookout to see twenty yards into the darknes.

Ther were five men aboard, all of whom wer saved.

The owner and captain, George G. Kershaw, and one other man climbed into the rigging, and as this became tangled on the bow of the Georgia, they were able to scramble aboard the steamer.

The other three men cut loose the yawl, and when the Georgia stopped they were taken aboard. Their names are John Gross, James Thomas and Alex Brown, all colored, from Maryland, and a white passenger named William Simon.

Detering's Mission to Japan in Behalf of Peace.

LONDON, Nov. 23 .- The English news mission of Detering, the Commissione as exclusively cabled to The Associated Press, yesterday afternoon, has left China for Japan in order to arrange terms of peace.

The Globe this afternoon, commenting upon Detering's departure for Japan. says that it confirms the reported re-jection of the mediation of the United States, as announced exclusively by the Associated Press. The Globe says that this was the course to be expected, "In spite of the Washington reports that the negotiations would be conducted by the American Minister at Tokio."

County Canvassers to-day, and wound up count of the votes cast at the recent election.

The total vote cast in the city for Governor, was 74,174, of which Hill received 17,085, Morton 134,395, Wheeler 9,039, Raichett (Soc.-Lab.), 7,614, and Matthews (Pop.) 1.18, there being also 1.164 defective and 2,590 blant. Col. Strong got 154,094, Grant's vote being 165,907. Mr. Goff's vote was 158,005, and his plurality of 86 over William H. Kilboy. The returns showed one vote for "Thomas H. Kilroy" and 78 'defective." Mr. Kilboy asserts that there were enough of these to have elected him. He may contest Brown's election. Christian Goets defeated Alderman Charles Silver Dollar Smith in the Third by 3,090 to 2,394. It is understood that Mr. Smith has abandoned his intention of contesting the election of Goets. Thomas Dwyer, O'Brien Democrat, with Republican support, was elected in the Eighth District by a big plurality, getting 4,005 votes to 3,394 for Patrick. Joyen Schilling, was elected in the Eighth District by a big plurality, getting 4,005 votes to 3,394 for Patrick. Long may possibly contest, especially as the two O'Brienites and the President of the Board, Mr. Jeroloman, will hold the balance of power between the Republicans and Tammany Hall.
Frederick A. Ware, Republican, won a notable victory for the Eleventh. He was elected Aiderman by 4146, Samuel Wesley Smith, Tammany, getting but 1,578, and Fulton McMahon, G. G., 1,225.
Frank J. Goodwin, Tammany, was declared elected Aiderman in the Thirteenth, receiving 4,043 votes to 4,023 for C. Holbrook Cushman, Republican. Mr. Cushman will doubtless contest.
Another close district was the Sixteenth, where Aiderman Francis J. Lantry Tam., was declared re-elected, it was at first supposed that he had been defeated, which would have given the Republicans a clear control of the Board. Thomas F. Eagan, Rep., got 3,505 votes, and he will fight Lantry in the courts.
Alderman Frank G. Rinn, Tam., was defeated in the Seventeenth District by Andrew Robinson, Rep., the vote being 3,37 to 3,359.
